

Application Web Meeting

With this form you can make a reservation for Web Meeting.

Tip: if you use Web Meeting regularly, you can use a personal, permanent Web Meeting without reservations by using the Ad Hoc Service. The Ad Hoc Service is subscription –based, allowing you to present whenever you want with your personal conference entry codes. An extra bonus is that you always have access to your presentation from every PC with Internet in the world. If you want to make use of this possibility, please fill in the application form of Ad Hoc Conferencing you can apply for at our service desk. You can also call the service desk if you want more information.
